SUPREME COURT .- During the whole of last week the Court and jury were occupied in trying the case of Rose vs. McKeague, in which $10,000 damages was claimed for seduction, and which resulted in a verdict for the defendant. On Wednesday and Thursday of the present week a mixed jury tried the case of Kaaihue vs. Crabbe, and brought in a verdict for the defendant. In the case of Keauuli vs. Akina, involving the sanity of a woman at the time she made a certain deed, the jury gave a verdict to the effect that she was insane. Yesterday a motion in arrest of judgment was argued before the full bench in the case of Dowsett vs. Brown and Macfarlane, in which a verdict for the plaintiff had been previously returned. THERE is some talk of the establishment of an Irish society in this city and kingdom, and the assistant editor of this journal (Mr. Edward Mac-Donnell) has consented to act as its president. He proposes to call it the "Fag-a-balla" Society! One of his schemes is the introduction of a ship load of laborers from the "Emerald Isle"-men. RANSOME & SIM'S PARIS PLOUGH, women and children-to engage in sugar cane cultivation, who would sail direct from Queenstown for Honolulu, paying their own passage, on condition of their receiving a grant of twenty acres of land from this government for each in dividual on arrival. By and bye, when the East Indians arrive, the Celtic, Aryan, and Hawailan races could amalgamate on these lovely Pacific islands very nicely! They were all one happy family, in the ould times—"long, long ago, love!"

-according to the learned Fornander CORONER'S INQUEST .- The report which reached here last week from Maul to the effect that : Chinamen at East Maui had been "disciplined" so that he died,-(as the Guzette had it)-turns out to have been untrue. A Chinamen named Awing died from hemorrhage at Hamakualoa on the 13th. Mr. E. H. Rogers, deputy sheriff of Maui, caused an inquest to be held by a jury consisting of J. Wagner, H. Roberts, J. H. Maybee, H. P. Hardy, T. Field, and J. Wilkin, with J. D. Havekost, Esq. presiding as coroner. A number of witnesses were examined, including three Chinese who worked with the deceased; Henry G. Treadway and Dr. G. A. Lathrop-the latter having made a post mortem examination of the body. The verdict of the jury was that the deceased Awing came to his death from natural causes. There was no evidence whatever that the man had been struck, kicked, or otherwise "disciplined," by anybody. Dr. Lathrop testified that he considered the immediate cause of death was disease of the liver of long standing,

A stranger, for fast riding was fined $5.00. Charles Rider, for furnishing liquor to natives, paid $53.00; and Kanaau was fined $50.00 for the same offence. Crimes come before the Court in streaks like bacon, fat and lean, dry and juicy. Drunks and assaults are few, but during this week, that mischievous spirit of affinity has been stirring up such a havoc, that Supreme Court and Police Court have been hard at work, and have their hands full to smooth the troubled sea. Affinity has been on a perfect rampage from high to low, revelling among the sprouts, and sprouting sufficient to demoralize all the lawyers in town. Two fines of $50.00 each were paid. James Gifford and Meaole were fined $25.00 and $50.00 tor procuring bad gin for natives. Too much hospitality in gin is my26 if unwholesome for the pocket.

A COLLECTION of poetical compositions has been published in this city, under the title: "Anglo-Hawaiian Poems, by John Machar Macdonald." The author is a wellknown resident of this city, and some of the poems have previously appeared in the local journals. As the public are already familiar with the Poet, it is unnecessary for us to remark upon the effusions of his muse. The Poems are at the port of San Francisco, according to the dedicated to His Majesty the King of the Hawalian Journal of Commerce are as follows :- Manila, Islands. Especial thanks are offered by the author 7,722,121 lbs; Hawaiian, 4,727,998 lbs; Batavia, to Her Majesty the Queen Dowager Emma Kaleleonalani " for her liberal patronage toward this publication." Although the writer says in the Title-page that "the pieces selected will be found Hawaiian either in matter, conception or association," it is during Wednesday, some welcome showers of rain | not easy to understand how the lines " to a Mosfell in Honolulu and vicinity, but the supply of quito," however amusing, can be deemed " Hawaimoisture is still very far from being adequate to | ian," merely because the Mosquito in question was the wants of the soil. An examination of records of imported Hawaiian breed, and stung the author of rainfall during past years shows that we are one night in a Honolulu boarding-house! the Poems more strictly Hawaiian are "The Hawaiian Exile," the "Address of Punchbowl Hill," and "Dream of Punchbowl Hill," "Diamond Head," and the " Ode to Hawaii nei," which, last in our opinion, is the gem of the entire collection. This beautiful poem, of itself alone, entitles the author to the distinction imported from the United States. Mr. F. Vehling, the manufacturer, has left a "specimen brick" of the article at our office, which in appearance and execution we pronounce to be quite equal to the well-known Boston card matches. DARIEN CANAL EXPLORATION COMMISSION.-We have already expressed our opinion that the outting of a ship canal through the Isthmus of Panama or Darien, will be the beginning of a new era for the Hawaiian Isles, whose geographical position places them directly in the route of ships from Europe via that Isthmus, for China and Japan, and the East Indies. We alluded elsewhere to the Exploration Commission at present on the Isthmus, under the command of our old friend Lieutenant Commander Lucien Napolen Bonaparte Wise, of the French Navy, grand-nephew of Napoleon the First, and son of our deceased fellow countryman, the late Right Hon. sir Thomas Wise, of the Manor of St. John's Waterford, Ireland, formerly British Ambassador at the Court of Athens-the secondin-Command of the Exploration Commission being our old Italian friend Captain Bixio, Aid-de-Camp of his Italian Majesty, and nephew of the late Geveral Bixio, Garribaldi's Lieutenaut in Rome and Sicily in 1849, and subsequently, lately killed in Sumatra, while fighting for the Dutch. We are now glad to learn, from a despatch, dated from Panama, on the 6th March last, the following information of the movements of the Darien Isthmus Exploration Commission :- " Notwithstanding the difficulties which have presented themselves, it it is certain that the Commission will return with a favorable solution, and that the necessary arrangements for the Canal will be executed at Darien. The labors of the Exploration will not be terminated before the end of March." We heartily rejoice to know that our dear friends on the Isthmus have been so successful, and that the world will one day, assuredly be indebted to their labours for a Darien Isthmus Canal, Mr. Lessens deserves the gratitude of present and future generations, for his important share in sending out this Commission to Darien, after having created for civilization the Suez Canal; and his name alone is an earnest of the success of this projected Darien Isthmus Canal. A gentleman, also, to whom Mr. Lesseps, as well as Messrs. Wise, Bixlo Can it be that the flavor of bad gin is less appre- and the other gentleman of the Commission should ciated? Eight sailors of the ship Iolani refused feel really indebted for his protection and kindly work on Good Friday, the day most sacredly ob- interest, is our old exalted friend H. E. We were favored by Captain Bixio with an account in French of the personel of the Exploration Com- . mission, from which we may take occasion to translate and publish some extracts. An undertaking, of such future importance for these Islands, should we think, deeply interest the Hawalian public.
